

P R E S S R E L E A S E

LINC PREFERRED GROUP ADDS ALAN FARLEY TO BUSINESS ADVISORY GROUP

COOKEVILLE, TN. – April 30, 2004 – Mr. James K. Morton, Chairman, and CEO of LINC Preferred Group, Inc. announced today the addition of Alan Farley to its BUSINESS ADVISORY GROUP, chaired by former Congressman Ed Bryant, a Partner at Baker, Donelson, Bearman, Caldwell & Berkowitz.

Mr. Farley is currently the President of a Government Relations & Consulting firm based in Murfreesboro, TN. He has consulted in Nashville and Washington, DC, on a variety of interests such as pharmaceuticals, insurance, transportation, construction & development, fire service, local governments, higher education, and economic development. Farley has vast experience in Government Affairs, transportation, promotions and political consulting at the local, state, and federal levels. He serves as Vice Chairman of the Rutherford County Industrial Development Board, which negotiates with various companies locating in the fastest growing county in Tennessee, and also serves as Vice Chairman of the Rutherford County Health & Educational Facilities Board.

From 1990 to 2000, Mr. Farley had various management positions with United Parcel Service in the areas of Human Resources, Operations, and the UPS-PAC Congressional Awareness Program. Farley holds a BBA degree from Middle Tennessee State University. He is currently involved in the Athletic program at Middle Tennessee State University as a Member of the Blue Raider Athletic Association.

“Alan’s thorough business knowledge in diverse industries will further compliment LINC’s role in delivering best practice procurement strategies into a variety of industries. We are delighted to have him as a company advisor,” said Morton.

“The transportation industry’s current business practices are tedious, labor intensive, time-consuming and inefficient. As a shareholder, I’m pleased to work with LINC and focus on the transportation market to create efficiency and cost savings for suppliers and fleets,” said Farley.

About LINC Preferred Group

LINC Preferred Group was formed by a group of business professionals to optimize supply chain efficiencies and improve industry profitability. The initial operating division, LINCedge, offers fuel card membership and innovative fleet management solutions to companies with Class 7&8 trucks. In the future, LINC Preferred Group will form divisions utilizing the same improvement concepts to focus on other industries.

Contact: Mr. Terry Wilson, Executive Vice President
1120 England Drive Phone: (931) 525-6287
Cookeville, Tennessee 38501 Fax: (931) 525-6871
terrywilson@lincpreferredgroup.com
www.lincpreferredgroup.com

###